

Graduate Research Student Workshop
Wednesday 29 May 2019
Harold Lee Room, Pembroke College

I. Opening Remarks 2:00 – 2:15

Sandra Fredman, Director of the Oxford Human Rights Hub

II. Human Rights and Women's Rights 2:15 – 3:00

Aradhana Cherupara Vadakkethil, Rape Adjudication and Prosecution in India: A reflection of Female autonomy or Masculine cultures?

Discussant: Camilla Pickles

Gauri Pillai, Reimagining Reproductive Rights in India: The Role of Equality and Non-Discrimination

Discussant: Camilla Pickles

Olga P Velásquez O, Mobilizing as Mothers Against Violence: The case of Mothers of La Candelaria, Medellín, Colombia

Discussant: Sandy Fredman

III. Human Rights and Refugee Law 3:00 – 3:30

Emilie McDonnell, Visa Regimes and the Right to Leave (To Seek Asylum)

Discussant: Harriet Moynihan

Thiago Alves Pinto, Offence to Religious Belief and Non-Refoulement in Practice

Discussant: Miles Jackson

COFFEE & TEA BREAK

IV. Deeper Understandings of Human Rights and New Challenges 3:45 – 4:15

Robyn Trigg, Animals Rights and Human Rights Part of the Same Continuum: The Interlinked Nature of Oppressions

Discussant: Sandy Fredman

Giovanni De Gregorio, Human Rights and Online Corporations: The Case of Social Media Content Moderation

Discussant: Harriet Moynihan

V. Justiciability and Adjudication

4:15 – 4:45

Ndjodi Ndeunyema, Justiciability Concerns through Judicially Enforcing the Human Right to Water

Discussant: Paul Craig

Tristan Cummings, A Systems Theoretical Analysis of Religious Tribunals

Discussant: Paul Craig

VI. Publishing your PhD as a Book: Perspectives from Publishers

4:45 – 5.15

Sinead Moloney, Hart Publishing

Miles Jackson, Law Faculty